

SADDLE UP! POLO AT SUNSET RETURNS THIS SUMMER!

The International Center is proud to announce the revival of its popular, family-friendly fundraising event, Polo at Sunset. Yes, this is a real, live polo match and a chance to see the ponies in action up close!

Adults and children of all ages are invited to join The International Center on Friday, August 11 at the Hickory Hall Polo Club for this lively polo match, as well as international games and activities, food sales and tailgating, stable tours and more.

Proceeds from Polo at Sunset will benefit The Center's INTLCXN programming designed to encourage expatriates and Hoosiers to explore our city and its blended culture together.

For more information about Polo at Sunset, contact Logan Charlesworth, marketing and communications manager.

THE CENTER JOINS ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT LEADERS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Martin Baier, president and CEO of The International Center, joined state leaders and economic development experts led by Governor Eric Holcomb, Indiana University President and 2016 International Citizen of the Year Award recipient Michael A. McRobbie, and Secretary of Commerce Jim Schellinger, in San Francisco for Confluence, a tech convention in the Bay Area.

INTERNATIONAL CITIZEN OF THE YEAR 2017

Join The International Center on September 13 as we honor Pacers Sports and Entertainment as the 2017 International Citizen of the Year. Table sponsorships and individual tickets are available.

To learn more, or to reserve your spot at the event, contact Laura Limp, development manager. You may also consider a contribution to The Center's Global Tribute Circle in honor of Pacers Sports & Entertainment. Information is available on our website.

INTERNATIONAL EVENTS

THE WORLD IN TRANSITION: CHINA

June 2
One Indiana Square

INTERFAITH IFTAR

June 4
St. Luke's Great Hall

INDY MIDSOMMER FESTIVAL

June 10
Latvian Community Center

ASIAN FEST

June 11
Indiana State Museum

WORLD REFUGEE DAY DINNER 2017

During his time in San Francisco, Martin and the Indiana Economic Development Corporation (IEDC)-led delegation connected with the leadership of Salesforce, Genesys, TechPoint and Indianapolis-newcomer Infosys. He also observed a panel discussion with Governor Holcomb, President McRobbie and Dr. Vishal Sikka, Infosys' CEO. Click here to listen to the discussion.

Upon his return, Martin expressed his optimism for Indianapolis as it emerges as a blossoming tech hub, saying he looks forward to The International Center taking on a "larger role in establishing and fostering these relationships."

To learn more about Infosys' decision to select Indianapolis as its first U.S.-based location, click here.

THE WORLD IN TRANSITION: DOING BUSINESS WITH RUSSIA

With the June 2nd in-house workshop focusing on China proving to be a full-house, The Center is encouraging all those interested in attending our World in Transition: Russia workshop to register early.

The World in Transition: Russia workshop will provide attendees with a glimpse of Russian culture, as well as an overview of business etiquette and protocol specific to that country's customs. The curriculum is designed to help participants gain insight into how culture influences perceptions, values and beliefs.

The World in Transition: Russia workshop participants will be provided with:

- An overview of Russian culture
- Instructions on business etiquette and protocol in Russia
- An understanding and appreciation of intercultural differences
- Intercultural communication tools
- Information about how culture influences perceptions, values and beliefs

Registration fees include all workshops materials and a continental breakfast. Space for the half-day workshop is limited. To learn more about the World in Transition: Russia workshop, contact Ansuyah Naiken, global competency manager. To register, click the button below.

REGISTER NOW

June 27
The Catholic Center

Have an event you'd like to see listed? Submit your event to The International Center's website calendar.

TALKING BOOK & BRAILLE LIBRARY PARTNERSHIP

The International Center has partnered with the Indiana State Library's Talking Book & Braille Library (TBBL) service to better serve expatriates with visual or physical disabilities relocating to Indiana. The services of the TBBL are available to residents of Indiana, regardless of citizenship.

To learn more about the Talking Book and Braille Library's programs, please visit their website.

SMALL BUSINESS RESOURCE AVAILABLE

The Indy Chamber has launched Indy Resource Navigator, an online tool that connects small businesses and entrepreneurs to low-cost resources designed to grow their business.

To learn more about this community resource, click here.

GET INVOLVED

Learn About Volunteer Opportunities

Follow Us on Social Media

Become a Supporter

INTLCTR